General Information

By applying for membership of the International Dilute Register you agree, during the period of membership, to abide by and be bound by the Constitution, Rules and Regulations of the Company. This includes abiding by Dilutes Australia's Social Media Policy. The Constitution, Regulations and Social Media Policy are all available and downloadable from our website – www.dilutesaustralia.net.

Any person may be admitted to membership of the Company, having applied by completing this form and paying the membership fee. Acceptance of this application is subject to Board approval. Please note that any member wishing to resign this membership must do so in writing to the General Secretary.

*Please complete the contact information details. An email address must be provided as all documents and your copy of Kaleidoscope magazines, member circulars, some event or meeting notices, receipts for your fee payments etc will be emailed to you.

Nominating an instructing person

All memberships must appoint one of the listed members, who must be over the age of 17 years, to be the person from whom the Company will take all instructions relating to that membership, and the ownership of horses registered to the membership. Please Note: IDR registration certificates DO NOT provide any proof of legal or beneficial ownership of any horse, but contain information provided to the Company for the purposes of the Company's records. Transfers etc must be signed by all parties listed.

Paying the Fees

The Schedule of Fees is available from our website. If you are not sure what the correct fee is, please enquire before making the payment. Fees can be transferred directly into our Paypal account via the email address listed on the form, or may be paid on-line by using the Paypal payment buttons. If you wish to do an international bank transfer, please contact the treasurer on dilutestreasurer@gmail.com for assistance.

The address for submission of all applications is dilutestreasurer@gmail.com. All enquiries about fees and charges can be emailed to the Treasurer at dilutestreasurer@gmail.com.
